

NSS Special Camp Report - Year 2025-2026

Nandore (District Palghar) From 15th to 21st December, 2025

No. Of Volunteers In NSS Special Camp: 100 Volunteers

Theme: Viksit Bharat

Adopted Village: Nandore (Dist. Palghar)

The NSS Residential Camp of B. M. Ruia Girls' College was organized from 15th December 2025 to 21st December 2025. The camp aimed at developing social responsibility, leadership skills, discipline, and awareness among students while serving the community. Various educational, health, cultural, and social activities were conducted during the camp.

Objectives of the NSS Residential Camp

- 1. To create awareness about social issues among students.
- 2. To develop leadership qualities and teamwork.
- 3. To promote health, hygiene, and fitness.
- 4. To encourage community service and social responsibility.
- 5. To spread awareness about laws, science, and environmental protection.
- 6. To strengthen the bond between students and the community.

Day 1 – 15th December 2025

1. Arrival at the Camp Site

On the first day, all NSS volunteers reached the camp site safely. The volunteers settled down and got familiar with the surroundings. The camp started with enthusiasm and discipline.

2. Group Formation-

Volunteers were divided into different groups as part of the camp activities. Dr. Hemlata Masiwal assigned tasks for a seven-day period. Each group was given specific responsibilities to ensure the smooth functioning of the camp, and group leaders were selected to manage daily activities efficiently.

3. Civil Defence Session by Mr. Nilesh Vaze

A training session on Civil Defence was conducted by Mr. Nilesh Vaze. He explained how to handle emergency situations like fire, accidents, and natural disasters. The session covered emergency response techniques such as first aid, fire safety, and evacuation drills for disasters. NSS Volunteers were taught about the various types of bandages and after learning any two volunteers had to demonstrate what they had learnt on the spot. Practical demonstrations equipped participants with life-saving skills, fostering resilience. The hands-on approach ensured active engagement, with volunteers reflecting on the importance of preparedness in their evening discussions. The session helped students understand the importance of safety and quick response.

4. Assigning Duties for the Next Day

Duties such as cleanliness, food management, discipline, and activity coordination were assigned to different groups for the next day. This helped in planning and teamwork.

DISASTER MANAGEMENT

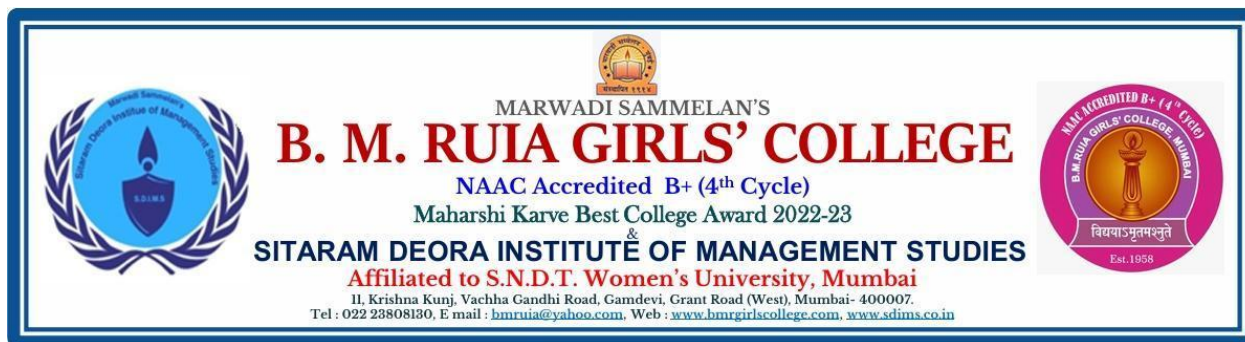

DAY- 1, 15.12.2025

Day 2 – 16th December 2025

1. Yoga and Meditation with Sahaj Yoga Team

The day began with yoga and warm-up exercises conducted by Mrs. Maheswari Mudveswari, followed by a meditation session led by the Sahaj Yoga team. These activities helped students relax their minds, improve concentration, and start the day with positive energy.

2. Ayurvedic Medical Camp for the Community

Dr. Shivani Mishra along with her team from K.G. Mittal Ayurvedic college visited the camp site. NSS Volunteers assisted them in setting up a medical camp for the villagers and students from the Ashram Schools. Post the check-up, free Ayurvedic medicines were provided to these people. This was followed by an awareness program for the villagers and the students. The attendees were educated about traditional healthcare and its benefits. This knowledge will enhance their access to healthcare. Volunteers who assisted in organizing the camp, reinforced their commitment to community welfare.

3. POSCO Act Awareness by Ms. Agalya (Sakshi NGO)

Ms. Agalya from Sakshi NGO conducted a session on the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012. She explained children's rights and ways to safeguard them from abuse. The session created awareness and encouraged responsible behaviour.

A comprehensive awareness session was conducted by Ms. Agalya from Sakshi NGO on the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012. During the session, she explained the rights of children and the various legal provisions designed to protect them from sexual abuse and exploitation. The participants were informed about practical ways to safeguard children, including recognizing signs of abuse, understanding appropriate boundaries, and reporting mechanisms available under the law.

The session emphasized the importance of creating a safe and supportive environment for children both at home and in the community. Ms. Agalya also discussed the responsibilities of adults, educators, and peers in ensuring children's safety. Through interactive discussions, examples, and case studies, students gained a clear understanding of their role in protecting children and promoting awareness about child rights.

Overall, the session was highly informative and impactful, creating awareness among participants and encouraging responsible behavior toward children. It highlighted the significance of vigilance, education, and community involvement in preventing abuse and ensuring the well-being of every child.

4. Science and Superstition by Andha Shraddha Nirmulan Samiti

A session on Science and Superstition was conducted by Andha Shraddha Nirmulan Samiti. During the session, the speakers explained how blind beliefs and superstitions negatively affect society. They encouraged participants to adopt scientific thinking, rational behavior, and a questioning mindset to overcome misinformation and promote a more informed and progressive community. The session aimed to create awareness and inspire critical thinking among the attendees.

Day 4 – 18th December 2025

1. Visit to Govardhan Eco Village

The day was dedicated to a Visit to Govardhan Eco Village in Wada, Palghar, an ISKCON-founded sustainable community. Volunteers toured organic farms, cow shelters, and eco-friendly infrastructure like biogas plants, followed by a talk on the importance of spirituality and sustainable living. This immersive experience aimed to inspire eco-conscious living and an appreciation for Vedic principles, blending environmental and cultural education. The day ended with reflections on the learnings and planning for the next day's activities.

2. Visit to Soham Good Factory

A visit to Soham Good Factory was organized to help students understand production processes and social responsibility. During the visit, students gained practical knowledge about industrial operations and learned the importance of work ethics. The factory mainly focuses on women empowerment, providing opportunities for women to become independent. They produce a variety of food items such as khakhra and chips and work as wholesalers.

Day 5 – 19th December 2025

1. Yoga and Meditation

The day began with yoga and meditation sessions, which helped participants maintain both physical and mental balance. These activities promoted relaxation, focus, and overall well-being, setting a positive tone for the day's events.

2. Shramdaan at Ashram Shala School

Volunteers participated in Shramdaan at an Ashram Shala school, where they cleaned the premises and assisted with maintenance work. This activity highlighted the value of hard work, community service, and contributing to the well-being of educational institutions.

3. Free Distribution of Clothes and Essentials

In association with Indian Red Cross Society (IRCS), adopted a village to support needy members of the community. During the event, volunteers distributed essential items such as clothes, toys, belts, jackets, shawls, dupattas, pants, and other necessary articles to underprivileged families.

The activity aimed to provide immediate relief and support to those in need while promoting social responsibility and compassion among the volunteers. It also created a sense of connection and solidarity within the community. The distribution drive brought joy and happiness to the recipients, promoting goodwill and strengthening the bond between the volunteers and the village residents. Overall, the initiative was successful in addressing basic needs and encouraging a spirit of giving and community service.

1. Yoga and Meditation

The final day began with yoga and meditation sessions, providing participants with a sense of calmness and an opportunity for reflection. These activities helped them relax, focus their minds, and prepare for the concluding events of the program.

2. Shramdaan at Vanrai Bandhara, Nandore – Devkhop Dam

Shramdaan was carried out at Vanrai Bandhara, Nandore – Devkhop Dam, where a small structure was built to help stop and store flowing water for effective watershed management. The activity was carried out with the active participation of village people, Gram Panchayat members, and government officers. Volunteers also took part in cleaning and maintenance work to support water conservation efforts. The initiative highlighted the importance of community involvement in preserving natural resources.

3. Workshop on Street Play and Skit

A workshop was conducted to improve acting skills, expression, and message delivery in street plays and skits. Volunteers prepared and performed acts based on important social issues in India. The session was guided by Mr. Bajrang Sonawane, who helped the NSS volunteers enhance their confidence and performance skills.

4. Street Play by Groups

Different groups also performed street plays for the community, spreading awareness about social issues such as cleanliness, education, and superstition. These performances effectively conveyed important messages and encouraged positive change in society.

Day 7 – 21st December, 2025

NSS Volunteers participated in a Yoga and meditation session on the last day of the camp as well. Throughout the camp, these students learnt the importance of Yoga and Meditation in living a peaceful life with a sound mind and body.

Valedictory Programme and Camp Report

The camp concluded with a Valedictory Programme attended by Gram Panchayat members, Principal of the College Dr. Santosh Kaul Kak, all the NSS Program Officers and volunteers. The event featured speeches and sharing of experiences by students. Students highlighted the values that they had learnt during the camp and how they would inculcate these in their everyday lives. Mrs. Maheswari Murdeshwar presented a Seven Days Brief Report, summarizing the camp's activities like yoga, cleanliness, medical camps, and skill workshops along with outcomes and community impact. The Villagers and volunteers expressed mutual appreciation for the collaboration.

Departure

Volunteers thoroughly cleaned the camp premises and left for their respective homes. Each one of them reported to the Program Officers after reuniting with their families.

Outcomes of the NSS Residential Camp

1. Students developed leadership and teamwork skills.
2. Awareness was created about health, law, science, and environment.
3. Volunteers understood the importance of community service.

4. Physical fitness and mental well-being improved through yoga and meditation.
5. The camp strengthened social values like discipline, unity, and responsibility.

The NSS Residential Camp was a meaningful and enriching experience for all volunteers. It helped students develop discipline, leadership, social awareness, and a sense of responsibility towards society. The camp successfully fulfilled the objectives of NSS by combining learning with community service.
