

Faculty -Board of Studies Correspondence

As Board of Studies members of the Affiliating University, our faculties contributed to the revision and preparation of the syllabus. Dr. Santosh Kaul Kak and Dr. Sunita Mishra drafted and submitted the syllabus for the subject Hindi as per the guidelines of NEP 2020 at undergraduate and post-graduate levels. Smt. Shruti Ranade, as a senior faculty of Psychology and Foundation course, was consulted by the BoS in Psychology and Foundation Course while drafting and preparing the syllabus of these subjects at the undergraduate level.

Dr. Beenu Singh prepared and submitted the syllabus for the subjects 'Labour Economics', 'Industrial Economics', and 'Financial Literacy' at the undergraduate level and 'Gender and Development', and 'History of Economics Thought' at the post-graduate level. Dr. Sumita Guha prepared and submitted the syllabus of the 'Research Methodology' paper in Ph.D coursework in Economics.

Dr. Hemlata Masiwal contributed to the syllabus of Sociology at the undergraduate as well as post-graduate levels.

Feedback on the Commerce syllabus communicated by our faculties, who are also BoS members of the Commerce Programme of Affiliating University, was accepted by the BoS. In the academic year 2020-21 Dr. Nooruzia Qazi contributed to the revision of the subject 'Consumer Behaviour' while Dr. Anita Jacob and Dr. Nooruzia Qazi contributed to the revision of the subjects 'Human Resource Management' in SEM II and 'Human Resource Management' in SEM III. Dr. Kashyap Ganatra contributed to the revision of the subjects 'Advanced Accountancy Paper I', 'Advanced Cost, Accounting and Auditing Paper I', 'Advanced Accountancy Paper II', 'Advanced Cost Accounting and Auditing Paper II'.

Dr. Kavita Patil, being a BoS member, of BoS in English and Subject Board for Business Communication Skills prepared and submitted the curriculum of Commerce as well as Arts Courses under NEP 2020 and suggested changes in the M.A English syllabus prepared under NEP 2020. Her suggestions were accepted and implemented by BOS.

The Faculty-BoS correspondence is attached herewith.

Dr.Deepti Deshpande

Following members were absent:

Dr.Ram Sable
Dr.Keshav Shinde
Dr.Aditya Srinivas

1. Agenda No.1 : As per Agenda No.1 members discussed and the panel of members was formed for restructuring the syllabus of M.Com Course – Commerce subjects.
Dr.Rashmi Hasamnis and Dr.Jyoti Thakur proposed that M.Com structure has to be revised and implemented from the academic year 2020-21. A detailed discussion was held among members and proposed structure is attached along with the list of panel members for restructuring various papers. It was decided that each course will be 25 percent Internal Evaluation and 75 percent External Evaluation.

Agenda No. 2 : In any other matter, members discussed and resolved

1. Dr.Nitin Songirkar from SMRK Nashik represented that in M.Com course the admission is restricted due to Internship and Research Project. He proposed an alternative to have optional papers. However, this would lead to increase in work load of University Departments. We request the Academic Council to deliberate on this issue and help us with some solution.
2. A representation made by SMRK College, Nashik, stated the problem of shrinking admission in FYBCom / MCom-I course because of the present eligibility criteria, which does not permit Science, Home Science, Diploma and any other Vocational Courses students to take admission in FYBCom, as today a lot of options are available. All the members felt that eligibility criteria has to be revised and widened for UG and PG Courses in Commere.
3. Revised Syllabus of BCOM(AFI) Sem I and II to be implemented from 2020-21 submitted. Members approved the syllabus of Commerce papers. (Copy attached)

Dear Dr. Dhrupadi Chattopadhyay,

Here are some suggestions and observations.

1. The Recommended Reading of the paper 3.3 Vulnerability Studies consists of 88 references whereas all other papers consist of around 10 to 15 references.
2. Regarding the paper 3.4 Translation Studies can we add the following essay in Module 1:
"Translation and Literary History: An Indian View" by Ganesh Devi from the book "Post-Colonial Translation: Theory and Practice"?
3. In the paper 4.2 Literatures of Diaspora: Theory and Practice, 8 Course Outcomes are mentioned. None other papers consist of these many course outcomes.

Regards,
Dr. Kavita Patil,

Dear Esteemed Colleagues,

Please find attached with this email a draft copy of the MA III and IV syllabus. We request you to respond to this at the earliest as we need to finalize the syllabus for the next academic year. If you do not recommend any changes and wish that the syllabus be forwarded to the Board of Deans and the Academic council, kindly acknowledge that in an email. Kindly treat this as urgent.

Thank you.

Best,
