11 OCTOBER, 2023 -INVESTOR AWARENESS PROGRAMME - SESSION ON MUTUAL FUNDS

The Department of Commerce, in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell, organized the Investor Awareness Programme - Session on Mutual Funds' on 11th October, 2023, as part of an initiative by the Securities Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in collaboration with Franklin Templeton, Asset Management Company.

The Resource Person for the session was Ms. Neha Goyani, Sales Manager, Franklin Templeton. The thrust of the Investor Awareness Programme was "A smart investor does not act on unsolicited investment offers. "

Resource Person Ms. Neha Goyani addressed the audience by introducing the Regulatory Body, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). She spoke and informed the students about the role of SEBI in spreading investor awareness, especially in making informed decisions while investing in various investments.

She also briefed about different sources of investment like Fixed Deposits, where the interest rate is around 7% or 7.5%, and spoke in length about options like Gold exchange-traded funds (ETF) and Gold Bonds.

She said mutual funds are very cost-efficient, easy to invest in, and should be invested longer. Because for a more extended period you invest lesser the risk. Mutual funds are considered one of the best available investments compared to others. Because here we have to invest, and the portfolio managers will work on it to earn higher profits. She guided the students about SIP investment (Systematic Investment Plan) and Lumpsum investment.

Report on Online National Guest Lecture on "Prashasnik Seva Mein Mahilaon ke liye Sambhavnaye evam Chunautiyan" Celebrating Vishv Mahila Divas

Event Type: Online National Guest Lecture

Guest Speaker: Shrimati Aabha Singh (Social Worker and Advocate, Ex IAS Officer, Mumbai)

To commemorate Vishv Mahila Divas (International Women's Day), the Department of Hindi organized an Online National Guest Lecture on the topic "Prashasnik Seva Mein Mahilaon ke liye Sambhavnaye evam Chunautiyan" (Opportunities and Challenges for Women in Administrative Services). The lecture aimed to raise awareness about the role of women in administrative services, the challenges they face, and the opportunities available for their growth in this field.

The esteemed guest speaker for the event was Shrimati Aabha Singh, a renowned Social Worker, Advocate, and former IAS Officer from Mumbai. With her extensive experience in both legal and administrative fields, Shrimati Aabha Singh shared valuable insights with the participants about the present-day scenario of women in administrative services and how they are overcoming barriers to succeed.

- To celebrate Vishv Mahila Divas by highlighting the role and achievements of women in administrative services.
  - To explore the opportunities and challenges that women face in government and administrative sectors.
  - To inspire young women, especially students, to pursue careers in administrative services.
  - To provide guidance on overcoming the challenges women face in professional growth and leadership roles.
- Shrimati Aabha Singh began the lecture by discussing the current status of women in administrative services. She highlighted the remarkable progress women have made in securing key positions across various government sectors.
  - She elaborated on the challenges faced by women in this field, including gender bias, work-life balance issues, and social pressures.
  - Aabha Singh emphasized the importance of women's empowerment and how women can break traditional societal barriers to excel in administrative services.

- The lecture also touched upon policies and reforms aimed at creating a more inclusive environment for women in the public service sector, as well as various programs that can help women build careers in this field.
- Shrimati Aabha Singh also spoke about the opportunities available for women in administrative services, including various competitive exams and training programs that empower them to take leadership roles.
- She provided guidance on how young women can prepare for civil services and other high-ranking administrative roles, focusing on perseverance, skill development, and self-confidence.
- The lecture was attended by 80 participants, including students, faculty members, and professionals from various fields. The virtual nature of the event allowed for wide participation from different regions, further enhancing its impact.
